

JORDAN DONEGAN

New York, NY • (503) 806-4110 • Jmd6@fordham.edu

EDUCATION

Fordham University, Bronx, NY

Expected: May 2028

Major: Journalism & Political Science, Minor: French, GPA: 3.98/4.00

HONORS & AWARDS: Dean's list, fall 2024 – present

RELEVANT COURSEWORK: Digital media and technology production, Introduction to politics, Constitutional Law, Intermediate multimedia reporting, Campus TV practicum, Journalism ethics and media law.

NEWSROOM EXPERIENCE

The New York Post, Field Reporter, New York, NY

May 2026- Present

- Travel across New York City to report on breaking news and developing stories, gathering information and details, and feeding them to editors for publication.
- Cover stories through door-knocking or man-on-the-street interviews, with families of crime victims, event eye witnesses, or other sources; frequently communicate with editors on major story advancements.
- Work directly on-site with editors when needed; help with in-house information gathering; hold phone interviews with city agency officials.

Fordham Student TV, Senior Reporter, Bronx, NY

Dec. 2025 – Present

- Co-led the relaunch of the university's student television program six years post-shutdown.
- Draft and construct all newsroom organization; frame club governance and editorial standards, negotiate studio and equipment access with university faculty.
- Dedicate 12+ hours/week to recording, filming, and producing packages; recruit and train new reporters.

WFUV News, Reporter, Bronx, NY

Dec. 2025 – Present

- Pitch weekly story ideas to newsroom editors and report on news pieces for a fast-paced NPR affiliate news station.
- Hold man-on-the-street interviews to gather on-scene audio clips of public perspectives for broadcasting.
- Write concise and engaging audio scripts; record narration to produce high-quality audio segments.
- Edit audio in Pro Tools to create broadcast-ready soundbites and clips on a tight deadline.

The Fordham Ram, Assistant News Editor, Bronx, NY

Dec. 2025 – Present

- Oversee weekly news production; pitch stories, guide writers, assign sources, and edit and fact-check all content.
- Report and write 2-3 news articles/week; report and produce dynamic stories covering campus and New York City.
- Conduct interviews with university leadership, faculty, and students to provide accurate reporting; collaborate with the news team on fact-checking and story development; design print pages in Adobe InDesign.
- Copy edit news, culture, opinion, and sports articles; ensure accuracy and compliance with AP Style guidelines.

News in the Grove, Newsroom Intern, Forest Grove, OR

May 2025 – Aug. 2025

- Reported, pitched, and produced news stories; conducted on-site, Zoom, and phone interviews with first responders, police officers, and firefighters; collaborated with editors to produce accurate and engaging content.
- Searched public records and government data to assist with investigative reporting; produced 8-10 breaking news stories per week, regularly engaged with community members to compile public viewpoints.

EDITORIAL EXPERIENCE

Fordham Undergraduate Research Journal, News and Copy Staff

Oct. 2025 – Present

Fordham Political Review, Staff Copy Editor

Sept. 2025 – Dec. 2025

Women's Press Collective, Campus Liaison, Writer, Volunteer

Aug. 2025 – Nov. 2025

SKILLS / LANGUAGES/ INTERESTS

Adobe: Premiere Pro, InDesign, Audition, Photoshop, Dreamweaver • Pro Tools • WordPress • WIX • Canva • Tilda
Fluent in French • Conversant in German

Overseas Press Club • Political Union • Fordham Varsity Cheerleading • Competitive Gymnastics • Detective Fiction